

ABSTRACT OF DR. ENRICO L. FRONTINI C.V.

████████████████████ graduated there in Medicine in 1971
Specialised in Paediatrics in Milan in 1974.

After a year of hospital practice in Italy left to Uganda where he worked in an upcountry 200 bed hospital first as a paediatrician and later as a responsible for a PHC rural program. He worked in Uganda for 4 years on the whole, before and after his engagements in Canada.

Completed a residency in paediatrics at Queen's University (Kingston, Ontario, Canada) in 1979.

After some years of paediatric practice in Italian hospitals was responsible for a program of International Co-operation run by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Ethiopia (Asella) from 1984 to 1986.

Between 1986 and 1993 was responsible for the planning and/or evaluation of international co-operation programs for the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs in the field of PHC, MCH, health system organisation in the following African countries: Somalia, Burkina Faso, Senegal, Comore Islands, Zambia, Djibouti, Burkina Faso again.

In 1994 was on a UNICEF team of rapid assessment in Rwanda emergency and later directed a program of assistance to Unaccompanied Children in Nyamata including health, nutrition and educational care and treatment of post-traumatic stress syndrome in a cohort of almost 2000 children in Nyamata (Bugesera).

In 1999 and 2000 has been a consultant for WHO first in the refugee camp of Kukes in Albania, then in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia.

In 1999 has been the Coordinator of Italian Cooperation in Rwanda for the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

In 2000 has represented WHO in Serbia, Nis Office on a 3 months consultancy.

In 2002 was Humanitarian Emergency Officer for WHO in Afghanistan.

In 2003 was Short Term Consultant for WHO in Turkey for Iraq war emergency.

In 2004 was Emergency Humanitarian Assistance Coordinator for WHO in Sudan

In 2003 and 2005 has worked as an attending physician for a TV reality show in Dominican Republic

In 2005 held a course on the Treatment of Severe Malnutrition in Childhood for medical personnel in Balaka (Malawi)

In 2007 was a consultant for a private foundation in Ghana, to open a new hospital for children in Kumasi

For more than 10 years has been a teacher for Scuola Superiore S. Anna on medical subjects for different courses.

From 1981 to 2016 worked in Collesalvetti (Livorno) as a family paediatrician for the Italian National Health System

Fauglia, May13th 2024